BIOGRAPHY

Rick Bartz, Vice President of Marketing and Strategy
Structural Systems Group

Rick Bartz is vice president of marketing and strategy for Ducommun’s Structural Systems Group. He is responsible for developing and executing the group’s sales and marketing strategy, including customer development, market penetration and promotion.

Mr. Bartz has more than 30 years of experience in sales, marketing and program management in the aerospace and defense industry. He joined Ducommun in 2014 from Woodard where he served as director of defense sales and customer account management. Previously, Bartz was vice president of business development for HR Textron. Earlier in his career, he held positions in business development at BW/IP International, Inc. (now Flowserve Corporation).

Bartz earned an MBA from the University of Denver and a bachelor’s degree in business from the University of Delaware.

Founded in 1849, Ducommun Incorporated provides engineering and manufacturing services to the aerospace, defense, and other industries through a wide spectrum of electronic and structural applications. The company is an established supplier of critical components and assemblies for commercial aircraft and military and space vehicles as well as for the energy market, medical field, and industrial automation. It operates through two primary business units – Ducommun AeroStructures (DAS) and Ducommun LaBarge Technologies (DLT). Additional information can be found at www.ducommun.com.
