BIOGRAPHY

John C. (Chuck) Baughman, Vice President of Marketing and Strategy
Electronic Systems Group

Chuck Baughman is vice president of marketing and strategy for Ducommun’s Electronic Systems Group. He is responsible for developing and executing the group’s sales and marketing strategy, including customer development, market penetration and promotion.

Baughman has more than 25 years of experience in operations management and strategic planning in electronics manufacturing for the defense, aerospace and industrial markets. He joined Ducommun in 2008 from Siemens Manufacturing Co., Inc. where he was chief operating officer. Prior to being named vice president of marketing and strategy, Baughman served as vice president and general manager of Ducommun’s Interconnect Solutions strategic business unit. Earlier in his career, he served as general manager for several divisions of Watlow Electric Manufacturing Co., including Watlow Batavia and the Watlow Columbia Business Group.

Baughman earned his bachelor’s degree in accountancy from the University of Missouri–Columbia.

Founded in 1849, Ducommun Incorporated provides engineering and manufacturing services to the aerospace, defense, and other industries through a wide spectrum of electronic and structural applications. The company is an established supplier of critical components and assemblies for commercial aircraft and military and space vehicles as well as for the energy market, medical field, and industrial automation. It operates through two primary business units – Ducommun AeroStructures (DAS) and Ducommun LaBarge Technologies (DLT). Additional information can be found at www.ducommun.com.
